

New tenants announced at Progress Ridge TownSquare

Latest to sign leases are Black Eagle Martial Arts and Fulcrum Fitness

The Times, Dec 22, 2011

BEAVERTON – Four new retailers have opened just in time for the holidays at Progress Ridge TownSquare, a mixed-use entertainment and shopping destination at Barrows Road in Beaverton.

Sweet Siren Boutique opened Nov. 21 with 1,300 square feet. Ace Hardware, which occupies 13,000 square feet, opened Dec. 6. Gentle Dental, T-Mobile and Ava Roasteria have also recently opened for business. And leases are now inked for two new retailers, Black Eagle Martial Arts and Fulcrum Fitness.

Black Eagle Martial Arts, which represents the Heuk Choo Kwan style of Korean martial arts, has leased 1,430 square feet. It is owned by one of the few female masters in the industry with a fourth-degree Korean black belt and the first female outside of Korea authorized to teach the heuk choo (black eagle) style of martial arts.

Black Eagle Martial Arts offers instruction to all ages, but specializes in classes for children. It also offers kickboxing, cardio, weight loss challenges and complete fitness and nutritional instruction. It expects to open late in January or early February.

New lessee Fulcrum Fitness has leased 3,100 square feet. Fulcrum Fitness offers boot camps, personal training and yoga classes and specializes in small group fitness utilizing a high degree of trainer-student interaction. Fulcrum Fitness emphasizes health first and fitness for a lifetime. It expects to open in early February.

The $100 million, 20-acre center developed by Gramor Development of Tualatin is the largest private development in the state, as measured by its 325,000 total square feet,

Logical Position notes promotion, VP of search

BEAVERTON – Logical Position has announced the promotion of paid search marketing expert Logan Bennett to vice president of search. Bennett oversees the company's paid search department and is responsible for the planning and implementation of paid search campaigns for the digital marketing firm. Bennett's responsibilities also include tailoring LP's suite of online search solutions to best suit the firm's diverse client base.

Most recently, Bennett was the director of paid search for LP after being quickly promoted from Internet marketing specialist. Bennett graduated from the School of Business Administration at Portland State University in 2009 with a bachelor of science in finance. He arrived at LP with a customer service background and a knack for problem solving in July of 2010.

Logical Position is a full-service, digital marketing firm offering a full suite of tools and services to help businesses build and increase their online visibility.

Lewis Landscape Services gets Angie's List nod

BEAVERTON – Lewis Landscape Services Inc. has been awarded the prestigious 2011 Angie's List Super Service Award, an honor bestowed annually on approximately 5 percent of all the businesses rated on the nation's leading provider of consumer reviews on local service and health providers.

"Only a fraction of the businesses rated on Angie's List can claim the sterling service record of being a Super Service Award winner because we set a high bar," said Angie's List Founder Angie Hicks. "The fact
